Re: Reporting of Securities Loans (File No. S7-18-21)

Dear Secretary Countryman:

I am writing in strong support of rule 10c-1, "Reporting of Securities Loans".

I support transaction-by-transaction reporting. We need transparency. I do also support the 15-minute reporting requirements. This is to prevent fraud, which is for the better of everyone. We should, and need to take all necessities to prevent fraud.

If this rule doesn't go through, I don't see a reason why even bother having the SEC. I always had trust in the system, but seeing it as necessary that I even have to write this, makes me wonder how many other institutions/branches doesn't do its job. To protect the people.

In proposed rule 13f-2, the SEC has explicitly shed light on the many ways which short selling can be used to abuse individuals and working families.

Sincerely,
A Deeply Concerned Investor
